

NEED HELP TEACHING HEALTHY RELATIONSHIP SKILLS?

Schedule a program or training!

Healthy relationships value consent, safety, respect, trust, and equality. Our approach to preventing abuse is to teach skills that put these values into action in our everyday lives.

Learn about trauma-informed, victim/survivor-centered, developmentally-appropriate programs for your community!

www.VictimServicesCenter.org/Education

Education@vscmontcopa.org 610-277-0932 ext. 232

HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS MAKE HEALTHY COMMUNITIES.

Prevention Programs for Schools

Safe Touches Program For Preschool, K-Grade 3

- preventing child sexual abuse
- teaches body safety
- identifying trusted adults
- empowerment-based
- parent resources and tools

Better Boundaries Program For Grade 6-8

- preventing sexual harassment
- setting boundaries
- online harassment and the law
- respectful vs. harmful behavior
- being an active bystander

Consensual Connections Program

For Grade 9-12

- preventing sexual assault
- healthy communication skills
- practicing consent
- definition of rape and the law

Other Topics

- parent role in prevention
- trauma-informed response
- supporting victim/survivors
- creating safe spaces
- signs, symptoms of abuse
- State-approved recognizing and reporting child abuse and neglect training course

All programs are trauma-informed, victim-centered, developmentally-appropriate and based on evidence documented by the Pennsylvania Coalition Against Rape. Programs are facilitated by Prevention Education Specialists who are trained sexual assault counselor/advocates. Customized programs are also available!

Visit www.victimservicescenter.com to submit a program request form or contact the Education Supervisor at Education@vsmcontcopa.org or 610-277-0932