

CODE BLUE SHELTER

CENTRAL BUCKS HOST SITE LOCATIONS

December: Neshaminy Warwick Presbyterian, Warminster
January: Our Lady of Guadalupe, Buckingham
February: Doylestown Presbyterian Church, Doylestown
March: St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Doylestown

Shelter opens December – March when overnight temperature is 28° or colder (including wind chill), and every Thursday regardless of overnight low temperature ONLY if all volunteer shifts are fully staffed.

Open/close status updated daily by 9 am : call 866-390-0291 x 701 or check centralbuckscodeblue.org online.

Shelter hours: 7:30 p.m. – 6:45 a.m.

Must be 18 years or older to stay at the Code Blue shelter.

Free Transportation is Available – CSSH Van

The pickup time for all van stops for the entire Code Blue Season is now 7pm.

Passengers must be at all CSSH Van stops by 6:50 to be sure they do not miss their ride to the shelter. The 7pm pickup time will be in effect through end of season, at the end of March.

The van route is variable, but it will arrive between 7pm – 8pm each night. Multiple runs may be required and the route pick up order may change from time to time based on numbers, so please be patient and wait, the van will arrive.

- Bus Shelter, Clinton St. near Septa Train Station, Doylestown, and bus shelter near crosswalk on Main St., Doylestown near Bucks County Courthouse.
- Walmart Supercenter, at picnic table, not store entrance, 100 E. Street Rd., Warminster.

CALL 866-390-0291 Ext 708 for van stop information

Ext. 701 - Daily Shelter Open/Close

Co2ssh.org/transportation-information

Central Bucks Code Blue is a temporary emergency winter shelter run by local volunteers.