NOVA BOOK CLUB

Join us and discuss the memoir "Know My Name" by Chanel Miller in honor of Sexual Assault Awareness Month.

Join NOVA's Book Club as we discuss Know My Name. This powerful memoir by Chanel Miller challenges the way we think about sexual assault and the beliefs our culture holds about what is acceptable. Through her story, Miller reflects on a culture often biased to protect perpetrators, examines a criminal justice system that can fail the most vulnerable, and ultimately shares a deeply personal journey of courage, resilience, and healing.

Light refreshments will be provided.
